GEORGE GRAHAM

After giving struggling Burnley a goal start in the first minute of our match at Turf Moor last Saturday we hit back to equalise through Lindsay Smith near the end of the game.

But it was two points lost rather than one gained and we had enough chances to have won the match comfortably.

That early goal certainly caught us on the hop and it was a very unprofessional start to the game by the team.

Once we had settled down we dictated play and had a goal disallowed as well as having efforts cleared off the line. It was very much one way traffic especially in the second half.

Fortunately the results went well for us with the chasing teams failing to win.

But our destiny is in our own hands and I am confident we will achieve our aim of promotion this season.

John Fashanu is currently playing with a damaged ankle and he may need a minor operation at the end of the season.

Steve Lovell missed the Doncaster match on Tuesday as he was away with the Welsh international squad. I tried to get him released but Mike England refused the request because of the doubts about Ian Rush's fitness.

Nevertheless, I am delighted with the international recognition both for Steve and the club and I am confident that he can continue to be selected.

The Doncaster game proved as expected a tense affair. But we had sufficient chances to have wrapped the match up well before Doncaster had equalised Kevin Bremner's well taken goal so Steve Lowndes' winner was no more than we deserved.

Our visitors today, Bolton will be all out to crack our home record but as I have said, our destiny is in our own hands and we shall all be looking for the right result.

SIMON FARNWORTH (Goal-keeper) After a promising and patient apprenticeship, Simon made the most of his break into the Bolton first team last season and missed only ten games.

RAY DEAKIN (Defender) The Bolton skipper showed great determination in regaining his place after losing his form in the middle of last season. The former Everton and Port Vale defender made 47 appearances.

PETER VALENTINE (Defender) The former Huddersfield Town defender missed only four games last season and rightly earned the label of "Mr. Consistency" at the heart of the Wanderers defence.

JIMMY PHILLIPS (Defender) The Bolton youngster has made great strides in his bid for first team recognition and deserved the chance of his first full appearance against Bristol Rovers on the opening day of the season.

WARREN JOYCE (Midfield) Missed only one game in the Bolton midfield last season, the young all-round sportsman has played County Cricket at Colts level and is a Rugby Union Schoolboy tourist.

GRAHAM BELL (Midfield) John McGovern turned to the former Oldham and Preston man when he was looking for a touch of experience to add to his midfield last season. Signed on a free transfer from Carlisle United and enjoyed an unbroken 19-match run.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield) The man Wanderers rely on to operate on the right hand side of midfield, the youngster, son of an ex-League player, played 45 games in Bolton colours last season.

JEFF CHANDLER (Forward) Jeff enjoyed his most successful season scoring 17 goals and being Bolton's only ever-present last season. A Republic of Ireland international the former Blackpool player cost Bolton £40,000 when he signed from Leeds in October 1981.

TONY CALDWELL (Forward) Set the Third Division alight when he scored a Club record five goals in Bolton's 8-1 win over Walsall in September last season, while on part-time forms and still an electrician. The recruit from non-League earned a full-time contract and ended the season top scorer with 22 goals from 37 appearances.

GEORGE OGHANI (Forward) Another signing from non-League, George switched from the wing to central striker to earn himself a second chance after John McGovern had tried to sell him back to non-League in the summer.

WAYNE FOSTER (Forward) Fast and hard-running, the former England Youth player has made more than 80 appearances in Bolton's League side.

SIMON RUDGE (Forward) A diminutive striker with a lot of skill and an eye for goal, Simon scored nine goals in 38 games last term.

STEVE SAUNDERS (Forward) Two operations kept Steve on the sidelines for the most part of last season but he is expected to make an impact this year round. An exciting young player of whom Wanderers have high hopes.

● WELCOME BACK

Paul Robinson, who so unluckily broke his leg playing for the 1st Team in a pre-season practice match against Colchester Utd. after finally establishing a First Team place last season, is now back in action and after making 5 Reserve Team appearances this month, turned out for his first 1st Team appearance of the season in the Freight Rover game at Orient.

● CLUB COMMENT

Our game next Saturday will be the last League game at The Den for this current season.

We wish to once again strongly appeal to all our fans not to invade the pitch at the Plymouth Argyle game.

Millwall F.C. cannot risk pitch invasions of any kind nor can we afford to "give away" players' shirts.

● AWAY TO AFC BOURNEMOUTH

We strongly appeal to all our fans not to travel to our game at Bournemouth next week.

The match is in any case "all ticket". Millwall F.C. will not be taking an allocation and we understand that "no ticket — no admittance" will be strictly adhered to.

It is vital to Millwall's future that supporters co-operate for both the Bournemouth and Plymouth games.

SPOTLIGHT ON MICKY NUTTON

Position: Defender

Weight: 12st. 7lb.

Born: Bristol

Signed: 22.3.1983

Height: 6'0"

Other Clubs: Chelsea.

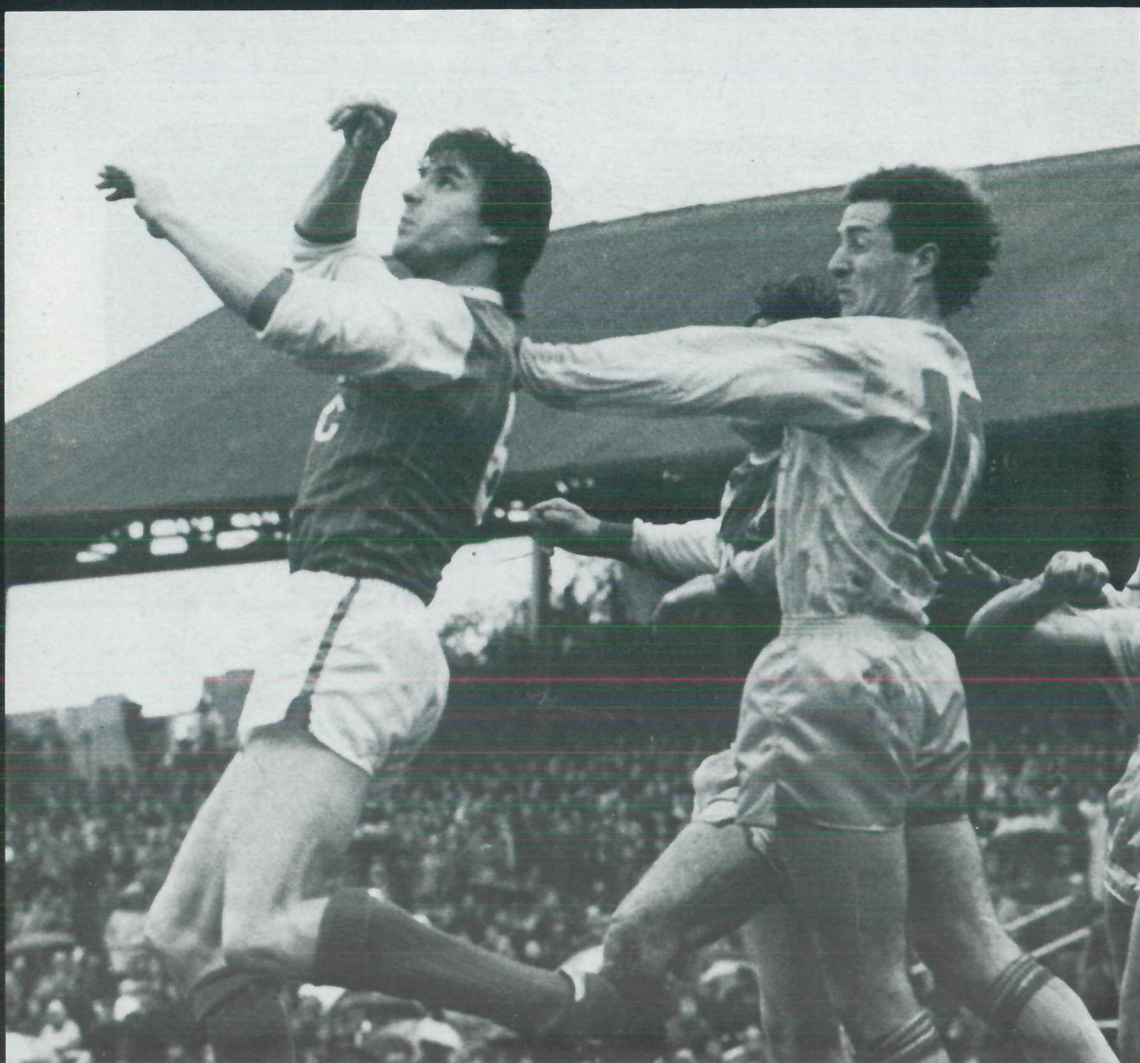

After losing a regular game in the Millwall First Team last season, Micky Nutton has played in only eleven games in the current campaign.

Micky is obviously disappointed at not having played more and he was unfortunate to be injured at the start of the season.

A strong defender Micky joined Millwall from Chelsea just two seasons ago.

Although he has not been in the First Team regularly because of the fine form of Lindsay Smith he is an important member of the senior squad.

The Club success this season and their aim of winning promotion can only be achieved by having a strong squad of players and this has been proved when Micky has come into the side.

In a league of its own.

The earliest recorded match against today's visitors took place at Millwall's East Ferry Road ground on November 6th 1895. Millwall who were then members of the Southern League beat their First Division opposition 5-1. The next meeting was in the F.A. Cup Competition of 1914-15. Millwall were drawn away to the "Trotters" in the 2nd Round on January 30th 1915 and played out a goalless draw, after extra time.

The replay at The Den resulted in a 2-2 draw also after extra time, Moody and Davis scored for the "Lions".

In the second replay at Bolton the Lancashire side were too strong and won the tie 4-1.

Almost twenty years passed before the clubs met again. This was in a 2nd Division match, their first meeting in the Football League (1933-34).

Millwall won the first encounter 2-1 at The Den. Att. 15,000. "Chisel" Forsyth and Roberts scored for the "Lions".

In the return fixture at Burden Park, Millwall lost 0-5.

Following this defeat, Millwall lost at home to Manchester Utd. 0-2 and were relegated to the Third Division (South).

During season 1954-55 Millwall had to travel to Bolton for a Third Round tie.

Although the "Lions" gave a good account of themselves, they finally succumbed to defeat 1-3.

League fixtures were renewed with Bolton in the 2nd Division in season 1966-67. Millwall won the first match 2-0 at The Den with goals from Len Julians and Billy Neil, att. 13,222, but lost away 0-5.

PRESS TALK

by Peter Burrowes

Sanity has returned to football at last with the news that next season clubs and referees will come into much closer contact on match days.

The Football League are proposing that the captain of each team should take the team sheet into the referees' room before matches instead of the manager or coach as happens now.

This will give referees much more opportunity to get to know the players representative — even before the game starts.

It is also being proposed that captains should wear a distinguishing arm band and they will also be allowed to approach referees on the field of play without getting cautioned unless they have committed an offence under the laws of the game.

Match officials are also to be allowed into clubs hospitality areas after games, something which up to now has been frowned on. The new proposals come about because referees and players in many cases are still a long way apart in their interpretation of the laws and cautions and sendings off are as high as ever. If referees can at least discuss the problems with managers and players it should go some way to improving the position.

Referees, because they are not full-time have long been regarded with suspicion and accused of not understanding the pressures faced by players and managers.

There is far too much inconsistency amongst referees who themselves are looking over their shoulder because an assessor from the Football League is watching their every move and compiling a report on their competency.

I must say some of the cautions I have seen this season have verged on the ridiculous and all too often the dangerous or malicious foul goes unpunished. These new ideas should be welcomed by people at all levels of the game and should help to make the players take their responsibilities to heart.

Another suggestion yet to be approved or rejected is for a second substitute to be allowed in First and Second Division matches. This is quite commonplace in continental and international football and is another step in the right direction as long as it is not allowed to get out of hand.

TALKING FOOTBALL

with Peter Burrowes

Although Liverpool boss Joe Fagan is the glorious exception, football these days is certainly a young man's game.

A look at the teams fighting for promotion in each of the four divisions highlights the youthful attitude of the men at the top.

Everton now look certain to win the First Division title with Howard Kendall at the helm, Trevor Cherry's Bradford City have already taken the Third Division crown, Chesterfield under the guidance of John Duncan head Division Four and the not quite so young Jim Smith, the "Bald Eagle" as he is known, has taken Oxford United to the Second Division title.

Although they now look likely to finish second or third in the First Division after their disastrous recent home form, Tottenham have had a good season under Peter Shreeves, probably the least experienced of the top managers.

The influence and strong character of Ron Saunders has certainly taken Birmingham City to promotion from Division Two.

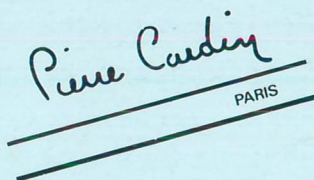

That Bradford City success in Division Three is proof of the good grounding Trevor Cherry and his assistant Terry Yorath enjoyed as players at Leeds and Brian Morton in his first season in charge has done a great job to get Hull City promoted.

Millwall too look on their way under the guidance of George Graham and still boasting the only unbeaten home record in the Football League.

The Fourth Division promotion battle highlights four young men bidding for glory.

Closely behind Chesterfield come Martin Dobson's Bury, big Sam Ellis is pushing Blackpool towards Division Three and Cyril Knowles should get his Darlington side into the fourth promotion spot.
